Chicago Attorney Appointed to Board of Directors of Illinois Bar Foundation

CHICAGO, IL, July 8, 2019 – Cory White, counsel at The International Business Law Group, LLC, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Illinois Bar Foundation (IBF).

The IBF's mission is to ensure meaningful access to the justice system, especially for those with limited means and to assist lawyers and their families who can no longer support themselves due to incapacity. In addition, the IBF administers the Illinois JusticeCorps program which provides navigational and procedural guidance inside courthouses across the State. This year, the IBF will distribute more than $930,000 in funds to promote access to justice and help support lawyers in need.

Cory concentrates in general business representation, transactional drafting, and securities compliance and regulation. He is an adjunct professor at Chicago Kent College of Law and a Silver Fellow of the IBF.

Cory has served the Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA) through various committee and section council memberships – most notably as a Board of Governor and ISBA delegate to the American Bar Association. He is a past Chair of the Standing Committee on Racial and Ethnic Minorities and the Law, and The Diversity Leadership Council. He currently serves as a member of the ISBA Assembly and CLE Coordinator for the Business and Securities Law Section Council.

Cory received a B.A. from Georgetown University in 2005 and a J.D. from DePaul University College of Law in 2009.

The Illinois Bar Foundation, which is the charitable arm of the Illinois State Bar Association, is located at 20 S. Clark St., Suite 910, Chicago, IL 60603. Call (312) 726-6072 or visit www.illinoisbarfoundation.org.
