New ISBA secretary, treasurer elected

THE ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION'S BOARD of Governors elected a new secretary and treasurer at its meeting June 20 in Lake Geneva. For the first time in many years, the Board's organizational meeting was held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting.

David Sosin, of Orland Park, was named treasurer. He is the founding partner in the Orland Park firm of Sosin & Arnold, Ltd. He has served on the Board of Governors since 2013 and is a past president of the Illinois Bar Foundation. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the ISBA Mutual Insurance Company. Sosin was a 2011 Laureate of the ISBA Academy of Illinois Lawyers and has received an ISBA Board of Governors Award.

Sonni Choi Williams, of Peoria, will serve as secretary. She is Deputy Corporation Counsel for the City of Peoria. Williams has served on the Board of Governors since 2012 and the Assembly since 2004. She received the ISBA Diversity Leadership Award in 2015.

The Board welcomed new members Dennis J. Orsey of Granite City, Daniel R. Saeedi of Chicago, Kent A. Gaertner of Wheaton, and Rory T. Weiler of St. Charles.

President Davi appointed Williams and Chantelle Porter to the board of the Illinois Bar Foundation.
